According to a Statistics South Africa report based on the last census, over 2.8 million people s

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa, January 10, 2017/ --

- Over 2.8 million (http://APO.af/gqdOpi) peo
- The first beneficiary of #OperationRehab has returned to South Africa with a new prosthetic

#OperationRehab aims to revolutionise the delivery of healthcare and education to disabled peop

The initiative will empower the beneficiaries, reduce the financial burden on their families and contribut

#OperationRehab is modelled on the stellar work of the Disable Welfare Trust of India (www.DisableIndia.org

Shree Kanubhai Tailor will be a trustee to the project and oversee the application of the Trust's model #OperationRehab www.MediaRevolution.co.za) as a part of its corpora

Dharmesh Nagar, Strategy Director at Media Revolution, notes that the project aims to restore dignity #OperationRehab

In India, the Disable Welfare Trust is able to treat thousands of disabled people at no charge, thanks to

The first beneficiary of #OperationRehab, 55-year-old Sharad Narsai of Lenasia, returned to Sou

"It is mind-blowing and completely exceeded my expectations," he added. "I have never been treated w

According to a Statistics South Africa (http://APO.af/gqdOpi) report based on the last census, over 2.8 million people (http://APO.af/wFC4Y)

The #OperationRehab initiative calls all like-minded organisations, companies

All new partners and sponsors will benefit from the expertise of South African marketing and advertising