The African states signed the corresponding Memoranda of Understanding (MoU) at the World

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa, May 4, 2017/

- Memoranda of Understanding to cooperate in the areas of power supply, industry, transportation a
- Focus on infrastructure investments and partnerships between public and private sectors
- Participation in “Make IT Alliance” to promote start-ups and technology companies in Africa

Siemens (www.Siemens.com) will work more closely with the African countries Uganda a “Africa’s economies are gaining ground and can develop their full potential with the right partner. Sieme

Brigitte Zypries, German Federal Minister for Economics and Energy, said: “Africa is a continent with e

“Siemens is a company that invests for the long term, and we are interested in the long-term fundament

Under these agreements, Siemens and its partners will develop solutions in the areas of power supply,

Africa possesses vast economic potential with forecasted growth rates of up to five percent. Spending

African countries need infrastructure and industrial projects that generate sustained income streams to

Siemens has already developed financing solutions for its megaproject in Egypt and power plant projec

Siemens has been active in Africa for more than 157 years. Today, with more than 3,600 employees ba