

g high volume facilities in four provinces, KwaZulu-Natal, Eastern Cape, Gauteng and Free State, this Public Health direct from the International Diabetes Federation (IDF) that the world's population will be 6.42 billion people with diabetes by 2040. 9.6 million people ries organisation as the key initiative will be the development of a clinical diabetes screening package for healthcare providers. The amongst patients and the general population, as well as carry out large scale diabetes and tuberculosis screening is please click here: <http://www.epresspack.net/sanofi-diabetes-global-health/news/1577> available at: <http://www.epresspack.net/sanofi-diabetes-global-health>

References:

as, 7th edition. Brussels, Belgium: International Diabetes Federation, 2015. <http://www.diabetesatlas.org> anization, 2015. http://www.who.int/tb/publications/global_report/gtbr15_main_text.pdf?ua=15. Last accessed Nov h addressing the global diabetic epidemic: from evidence to policy and practice. The Lancet Diabetes & Endocrinology

Écrit par SANOFI
Samedi, 05 Décembre 2015 14:11 -
